Abstract Right Is Unquestioned, Is View.

PLAN TO ANNEX D. C. IS OPPOSED

Lesh and Clayton Say Idea Not Workable. Antis Speak.

Frank admissions were made by members of the House judiciary committee, at the conclusion of the hearing today on the resolution for national representation of the District, that the citizens' joint committee and provided its case that a majority of the people of Washington desire national representation.

Representative Summers of Texas brought hope to the committee and a large gathering of representative advocates when he declared himself convinced the people here sincerely want a voice in handling their affairs, and that he thought no member of the judiciary committee questioned the abstract right to participate in their national government.

Representative Summers' statement reflected the attitude of the committee seemed to be indicated by questions seeking to establish the views of local citizens as to practical methods of establishing suffrage in the District, several congressmen asked.

Another suggestion came from Representative Summers himself when he asked Paul E. Lesh, representing the City Club, if it would be possible to attach the District to a neighboring state for the purpose of giving it the right of voting for delegates in Congress. Mr. Lesh said he did not believe the plan would work.

The question was repeated by Representative Summers later to C. T. Clayton, representing the Columbia Heights Citizens' Association. Mr. Clayton also expressed doubt as to the practicability of the suggestion.

Chairman Volstead asked Mr. Clayton if he did not believe it would be feasible for the District to be attached to the state of Virginia purely for the purpose of enabling local residents to employ machine already set up in that state for voting for senators and representatives.

The Columbia Heights representative said he did not believe it would be feasible for the District to be attached to the state of Virginia purely for the purpose of enabling local residents to employ machine already set up in that state for voting for senators and representatives.

The committee's joint committee concluded its case by presenting a resolution, which was introduced by Representative Sherman E. Burroughs, author of the resolution, that the District be annexed to the state of Maryland.

GEORGE'S HOSPITAL SITE FOR PUBLIC LIBRARY

D. C. Commissioners Ask, in New Bill, for Authorization to Accept Land.

The Commissioners today sent to Congress a substitute bill authorizing use of the site of the old Naval Hospital, 9th street and Pennsylvania avenue southeast, for the erection of a branch public library for residents of the southeast section.

A bill already has been introduced authorizing the city heads to accept donations of land and money for a library in the southeast. The Commissioners, however, introduced the new bill, which introduced the Secretary of the Navy has consented to legislation that would make the old Naval Hospital site available.

The Commissioners, acting in conjunction with the board of trustees of the Public Library, to draft a substitute bill.

In a letter to Representative Carl E. Mares, chairman of the House District committee, the Commissioners explained the new bill.

"The object of this bill is to provide for the establishment of a branch library in the southeastern section of the District of Columbia," the bill states.

The bill authorizes the Commissioners to accept a conveyance of land for a site and also to accept the Carnegie Corporation of New York funds for the purpose of erecting a library building on said site.

NAVY NURSE KILLED IN ANNAPOLIS GROUNDS

Miss Harriett M. Kavanaugh, a nurse in the United States Navy, was killed today in Annapolis, Md., when she fell from a bridge over the Chesapeake Bay.

The young woman had left another of the academy grounds, where she was employed, and was walking across the bridge when she fell.

The cause of the fall is not yet known, but it is believed that she was not paying attention to her footing.

The young woman was 25 years old and had been in the Navy for several years.

Her death was a great loss to the academy and to her family.

BRITISH AMBASSADOR SAILS FOR LONDON TO CONFER WITH PREMIER AND CURZON.

The ambassador is expected to return to Washington in February.

His departure was announced by the State Department.

During his absence, the British secretary of state for foreign affairs, Lord Curzon, will act as ambassador.

The ambassador's mission is to discuss the question of the British loan to the United States.

PERET DECINES TO FORM CABINET

Failure Due Largely to Desire of Poincare to Be Foreign Minister.

PARIS, January 15.—Raoul Peret, who was asked yesterday to head a new ministry of France in succession to the one which resigned on Wednesday, appeared before President Millerand today and declined to form the cabinet.

Difficulties encountered yesterday by M. Peret in forming a cabinet were of a most discouraging nature. At the end of the day he had almost decided to give up the task, but decided to resume work this morning.

M. Peret's failure to create a ministry was due largely to the refusal of former President Poincare to enter the cabinet as premier, who would direct the foreign ministry, but ex-premier Briand was the man M. Peret had in mind as his foreign minister, because of his qualities as a negotiator and his strength with the European chancelleries.

CHINESE FAMINE MAY KILL MORE THAN DIED IN WAR

NEW YORK, January 15.—Famine stalks through China with claim more lives in the next six months than were lost in all the armies during the world war unless other nations come to the rescue on a tremendous scale. It was predicted today by the Rev. Dr. W. A. Mather, Presbyterian missionary, upon his return from Pootung.

More than 15,000,000 persons face immediate prospect of starvation, he said, "and 45,000,000 others are affected in the famine zone of 100,000 square miles."

WOMAN REVEALS ARSENAL

LONDON, January 15.—What the police allege to be another big Sinn Féin plot to destroy property in London was uncovered in court today when Patrick Kenny, an Irishman, was charged with participating in an attempt to murder two policemen and trying to ignite barrels of oil on the premises of the Vacuum Oil Company.

The company's plant is at Wandsworth, South of London, and 60,000 barrels, containing 2,500,000 gallons of oil, are stored there.

At 1 o'clock this morning three police officers were on duty when they discovered fifteen men lurking near the Vacuum company's premises, some of them apparently having just come from the barracks.

SENATE RESTORES 50-50 PLAN IN APPROPRIATION MEASURE FOR DISTRICT

DANISH KING
PLANS U. S. TRIP
THIS SUMMER

COPENHAGEN, January 15.—Unless unforeseen conditions arise to prevent, King Christian of Denmark plans to visit the United States during the early part of the summer. The visit will be of a similar nature to those he has just paid to England, France and Italy. He probably will be accompanied by the queen and the Princess Margrethe.

The royal travelers intend to leave Copenhagen in the early spring on one of the motor ships of the East Asiatic Company, which have staterooms for about twenty people, so that the travelers will have all the privacy of a yacht. The staterooms are magnificent.

They will first visit India, where the king hopes to see some big game, and from there they will go to Japan. The first American city to be visited will probably be San Francisco.

The king expects to visit all larger Danish settlements in the west. He already knows many of the Danish-American settlers, for when they return to the homeland they are always invited to call informally at the palace and to tell him of the condition of his countrymen abroad.

HARDING PICKS BIBLE TEXT TO TAKE OATH OF OFFICE

Will Ask That Same Book Used by George Washington Be Produced—Conferences Virtually End Today.

BY ROBERT T. SMALL.

MARION, January 15.—President-elect Warren G. Harding has chosen the biblical text upon which he will take the oath of office as President of the United States. He will ask that the same Bible which George Washington used be produced at Michig, sixth chapter and eighth verse, which reads:

"If thou hast showed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the Lord require of thee, but to do justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with thy God."

Senator Harding's thoughts have been much upon the Bible of late. For the past two weeks he has been taking numerous degrees in Masonry. First of all, he was elevated to the thirty-second degree in the Scottish Rite. Then he was made a Shriner. More recently, and at home here in Marion, he has been taking the Royal Arch degree. So he has been surrounded by a particularly solemn religious atmosphere.

The President-elect commented upon the local chapter and pledged his belief in the efficacy of prayer. He believed that prayer will help him with the problems that are before him in the White House.

Experts to Be Equal to Task.

Senator Harding said that the affairs of this nation have been difficult for a long while, but as he approaches his task with confidence and faith, he believes faithfully that God will make him equal to the responsibility.

"During the past ten days," he said, "I have been taken far back into the story of creation and I have found it adding to my sense of religious devotion, gripping the heart and adding to one's confidence."

"I believe in prayer. I believe in prayer in the closet, for there one faces God alone. Many times the spoken prayer is only for people's ears. I can understand how those kneeling in prayer, and the anxieties, problems, perturbations and perplexities found courage and strength when they gave their hearts to the great Omnipotent in prayer."

How many things there are in Scripture that we in our worldliness never discover!

Best Minds at Call.

"After all men are much alike. God made us all in the same image and there is no difference in us except as we have developed, or when the weight of responsibility is shouldered upon us. Then God makes men equal to that responsibility. It is the touch of responsibility that makes human beings aware."

The government of this republic has been a long and noble one, continued, "and the inevitable result has followed. But I am not afraid. I know through courtesy, confidence and close adherence to justice, one will have at his call the best minds and intellects in this great republic and now and then, a few 'best minds' are expected early next week, but Senator Harding during the greater part of the time he remains here will be settling up many of his personal and business affairs."

By the end of next week he should be under the sunny skies of Florida. The skies over here have been leaden for a long while, but as he approaches his task with confidence and faith, he believes faithfully that God will make him equal to the responsibility.

The visit will be of a similar nature to those he has just paid to England, France and Italy. He probably will be accompanied by the queen and the Princess Margrethe.

The royal travelers intend to leave Copenhagen in the early spring on one of the motor ships of the East Asiatic Company, which have staterooms for about twenty people, so that the travelers will have all the privacy of a yacht. The staterooms are magnificent.

They will first visit India, where the king hopes to see some big game, and from there they will go to Japan. The first American city to be visited will probably be San Francisco.

The king expects to visit all larger Danish settlements in the west. He already knows many of the Danish-American settlers, for when they return to the homeland they are always invited to call informally at the palace and to tell him of the condition of his countrymen abroad.
